Spring 1993 Volume 18, Number 1

Features

28 CLIENT/SERVER IN BANKING
Benefits such as flexibility, improved productivity and faster development prove that client/server processing is more than just the industry's latest buzzword

33 HOW MUCH "POWER TO THE PEOPLE" FOR BANKS?
New versions of client/server software can turn functionaries into decisionmakers. Are you ready for that revolution?

35 A VENDOR ALLIANCE
Unlike some other areas of bank automation, there is nothing but cooperation among vendors that provide the pieces of a complete loan system

38 GARY-WHEATON GIVES CUSTOMER SERVICE
When the method was manual, Gary-Wheaton Bank's CSRs knew only that they got a lot of telephone calls. With automation, they learned a whole lot more about who was calling, and why

41 NOTHING HAPPENS UNTIL SOMEBODY SELLS SOMETHING
Backed by powerful software, it is bank employee as salesperson. CSRs are attending sale training classes, selling and cross-selling bank products, and collecting commissions
